5. Liability

5.1. Personio shall be released from all obligations upon delivery of the prize, unless an earlier date is specified in these rules.

5.2. The prize may be provided by a partner (hereinafter "Sponsor"). Personio shall not be liable — subject to its own fault as set out in these liability provisions — for any items or services won that are provided by a Sponsor and not by Personio itself. The warranty and guarantee conditions of the respective Sponsor apply, provided these do not restrict the participants and can be transferred by Personio to the participants. Claims for possible material defects and defects of title in the prizes provided by Sponsors are to be made exclusively against them.

5.3. Personio is not liable for the insolvency of a Sponsor and the consequences resulting from the implementation of the Competition.

5.4. Personio is only liable for damages if the damage is due to intent or gross negligence. In addition, Personio is liable for the breach of a cardinal obligation due to simple negligence only. Cardinal obligations are those the fulfilment of which enables the proper performance of the Competition and the achievement of its purpose in the first place, and on the compliance with which a participant may regularly rely. In this case, however, Personio shall only be liable for the foreseeable, contract-typical damage. Personio shall not be liable for the slightly negligent breach of the obligations mentioned in the above sentences by others. As far as the liability of Personio is excluded or limited, this also applies to the personal liability of employees, representatives and vicarious agents of Personio. In case of grossly negligent breach of duty by vicarious agents of Personio, the aforementioned limitations for slightly negligent breach of essential duties apply accordingly. The above limitations of liability do not apply in case of injury to life, body and health. Liability under the Product Liability Act remains unaffected.

Personio collects, processes, uses and stores the personal data provided by participants for the purpose of carrying out and processing the Competition in accordance with the statutory provisions and within the scope of the consent granted by the participants. Personio is entitled for this purpose to transmit the winner's data to transport companies, cooperation partners, Sponsors and cooperation partners of the Sponsors (e.g. for the delivery of the prize).
